I urge the State of Connecticut to reject any further expansion of Casino Gambling as considered under the above referenced bill or any future bill proposed.

I believe the gambling market has reached its saturation limit and we are seeing multiple venues chasing the same customers-building more casinos merely spreads the issues connected with them to more locations rather than increase overall revenues.

If more casinos are permitted it seems realistic that the existing locations will see fewer customers and fall into disrepair – much like what happened to Atlantic City.

We need real economic growth proposals and projects not additional gambling locations.
